

Friendship Knot Quilters' Guild

Member's Meeting

August 15, 2016

First Vice-President, Jann Warfield called the August meeting to order at 7:00 P.M. at the Bahia Vista Mennonite Church. Jann welcomed members and guests. She reminded everyone to check the tables at the entrance for the latest information on quilt related events. The Scarlett O'Hara Cottage Group was thanked for being hostesses tonight.

Reminder: The next Board Meeting will be held on September 1 at 6:00 p.m. at President Karen Clark's home. Members are also welcome to attend—just please let Karen know in advance if you will be there.

Minutes: The minutes are posted on the website. Approved.

Treasurer's Report: Will be posted on the website shortly. Email Joy if you wish to have a copy emailed to you.

Guild Challenge: Delores Simpson is out of town ~~She left word that she would like to encourage everyone to make signs asking attendees at the quilt show to "Do Not Touch" ~~approximately 8 ½" X 11 " ~~ would like to have about 40 more. Please bring them to the meetings as you finish them.

First Vice-President: Jann reminded everyone to check out the September newsletter before coming to the meeting to review the 2017 classes that you would like to take. Sign ups begin at the September 19th meeting. Bring your checkbook as you will need to pay for the class in order to hold your space!

2nd Vice President/Librarian: Ellen Simon has several new books for the library, including a variety of topics as well as a quilt themed novel. The books in the library that have not been checked out for a while will be sold starting at the next meeting at bargain prices.

Membership: There were 55 members and 3 guests present.

Class Registrar: Registration for 2017 classes will begin at the October meeting. Classes may be reviewed in advance. There will be an email notifying everyone so you can see in advance which of the classes you are interested in and fit into your schedule. Please bring your checkbook and registration forms may be printed from the newsletter—one per class, please.

There are still openings in the "Labyrinth Walk" quilt class October 17 with Jerry Stube and Joe Cunningham's Nov. 19 class "Big Easy Stitches."

Newsletter: The deadline for submissions to the September newsletter is August 23rd. Please get them in to Jane by that date. She is doing a wonderful job with our newsletter.

Photographer: The photographer can not be at tonight's meeting—Lenore will be taking pictures of the Show and Tell quilts.

Friendship: Bev reported that Patti Clendenin has been ill. Best wishes to her for a quick recovery.

Kidz Quilts: The report is in the newsletter. Once again, they are doing an amazing job. Thank you!

Public Relations: Pam Morris said that she hasn't received any information to write up "Kudos" for the newsletter and is resigning from the position. However, kudos go out tonight to Jann Warfield for being a finalist in the Cherrywood Fabrics challenge for her "Lion King" quilt!

Quilt Show: Elva reported that everything is going well getting ready for our 2017 quilt show. Please keep making Mini Quilts, blocks for the Block Auction and tying up old magazines.

The business meeting was adjourned at 7:25.

Program followed with an amazing trunk show by one of our members, Sandi Snow.

Show and Tell followed.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia Slocum,
Co-Secretary
