

Friendship Knot Quilters' Guild

June 19, 2017

Past President Karen Clark called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. at the Bahia Vista Mennonite Church.

Comments:

All members were reminded to check the table in the entry hall for news.

The May Guild Meeting Minutes were approved as presented.

The May financial report is complete and on the Guild website.

First Vice President: Jann Warfield requested and received volunteers to model Lyric Kinard's wearable art at the November Guild meeting. We still need a class registrar. The Manatee Patchwork Guild is having a retreat and information is available on their website.

Membership: Katie Metheny reported that there were 58 members and 1 guest present tonight. There were 2 renewals. There are now 291 members in the Guild.

Newsletter: Submissions for the next newsletter is June 25th.

Habitat for Humanity: One table runner was donated.

Cottage Groups: Terri Reiman wants to resign the chair position. The position requires someone who is good at organizing groups.

Kidzquilts: Check the newsletter for information.

Summer Retreat: Kathy Dotson reported the retreat is full.

Show and Tell was held.

Second Vice President: Ellen Simon announced that the July Guild meeting will be a Trunk Show by Maggie Dillon. In August, Artzy Chameleon will be presented. Ellen reported that there will be no new library books until October when the new titles are available.

Program: Ellen narrated a slide show on Round Robin quilts. Then she shared guidelines for participating in a Round Robin challenge. Members signed up for the challenge.

The meeting was adjourned and followed by an ice cream social.
