Board Meeting Minutes

November 9, 2017

Members present: Delores Simpson, Katie Metheny, Kathy Dotson, Joy Abbott, Karen Clark, and Cathy Lane

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by Delores.

Joy reported that the Annual Budget for 2018 is on the Guild website and members will vote on it at the November Guild meeting.

Katie announced that the revised membership form is on the website and in the newsletter. Also, membership renewal forms will be collected at the Holiday Party.

Delores said the new Cottage Group Coordinator, Denise Collado, will be at the November Guild meeting.

There is a need to explore options for the Guild website. My Grove is recommended and we will ask Carol Shaw to do a tutorial for us in January.

Cass Bowen and Joy will present the reviewed By-Laws when they are ready. They will recommend some minor changes.

The Manatee Quilt Guild will display their donor quilt and sell tickets at our January Guild meeting.

Marlene Kurtz is handling all aspects of the installation of new officers, including balloting at the November Guild meeting and installation at the December Guild meeting.

Elva Farrell is preparing for the Member of the Year nominations, voting, and recognition.

The Applique Chicks are well on their way in planning the Holiday Party, "Poinsettias, Prizes, and Pies." The party is scheduled for December 11 at 7:00 p.m. and tickets are five dollars. Attendees are asked to bring a batik fat quarter as part of the door prizes.

Delores volunteered to write "In the Beginning," a new article for the newsletter. She will interview Guild members and ask them how they got started in quilting.

Show and Tell photos are stored on a flash drive and may be posted online eventually for members to see.

Kathy Dotson is working on updating the Guild logo.

The Board will not meet in December. The next Board meeting is scheduled for January 11, 2018.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30.

Respectfully submitted, Cathy Lane, Secretary
